NOTICE OF SETTLEMENT IN CLASS ACTION

To all individuals who were sexually abused by Ralph Rowe between 1975 and 1987 within the geographic boundaries of the Anglican Diocese of Keewatin and have not previously settled or otherwise released claims against the Synod of the Diocese of Keewatin and Scouts Canada.

The Court has approved the settlement which provides compensation to eligible class Members who file a claim for sexual assault and meet the requirements of the claims process.

If you opted out of the class action, the settlement will not impact you.

If you are part of the lawsuit as a Class Member, you can submit a claim for a payment of money as compensation. The amount for each individual Class Member could be up to $350,000 total, depending on the circumstances of abuse, the extent of the harm suffered, the process chosen by the Class Member, and how many people make a claim. This includes compensation of up to $140,000 through a simplified process (without any cross-examination), as well as up to a further $210,000, if sought by the Class Member and depending on the extent of the harm.
